Local Student Athletes Sought to Showcase Talents for National Publications

MARCH 2, 2015—TOLEDO—4th and Goal Athletics is currently seeking student athletes, grades eighth through 11th, to participate in the Fourth Annual Northwest Ohio Underclassmen Showcase on Sunday, March 15. The showcase will take place at the Sylvania Tam-O-Shanter, 7060 West Sylvania Ave., Sylvania, Ohio.

From noon to 3 p.m., athletes will have the opportunity to showcase their abilities for national sports publications Scout, 247Sports and Eleven Warriors. The event will include combine drills such as: the 40-yard dash, 5-10-5 shuttle run, position drills and one-on-one activities.

Over 500 local athletes have participated in the annual Northwest Ohio Underclassmen Showcase. Past participants have gone on to receive local and national recognition and earn college scholarships to schools like University of Toledo, Michigan State, Notre Dame and Youngstown State University.

Registration for the showcase is $40 per person. To register, please call Mike Robinson at 888-891-9444 or go to www.4thandgoaltraining.com.

4th and Goal Athletics is a premiere student athlete training company in Toledo, Ohio. Players are trained by former athletes to create successful young sports players through leadership, mentorship, athletics and community service.
